

Habsolutelywonderful
Habs and CWHL hockey blog

CWHL Helps the Homeless and Fights Breast Cancer Posted on November 21, 2011

In an outreach game, Friday in Newmarket, the Brampton Hockey Club hosted the Burlington Barracudas to cap off the RBC Hockey Helps the Homeless charity tournament.

The sold-out recreational tournament featured Toronto Maple Leafs alumni and current CWHL players in the lineups.

Since its inception in 1996, the organization has raised more than $3.5 million and assisted more than 18,000 homeless men, women and youths.

Canadian Olympic gold medalists Jayna Hefford, Lori Dupuis, and Gillian Apps scored two points apiece while Cherie Piper had three points in Brampton's 6-3 win.

Rookie Vicki Bendus had a goal and an assist while Ashley Riggs also netted two goals for her first points of the season.

Barracudas captain Jana Harrigan and Shannon Moulson each scored a goal and an assist while Sommer West had three helpers. Annina Rajahuhta also scored for Burlington.

The teams had a rematch on Saturday in Brampton where the home team came out on top 2-1 to extend their win streak to three.

Jennifer Sadler and Apps scored for Brampton while Rajahuhta had the lone Burlington goal.

The Barracudas have yet to win a game this season.

<http://habsolutelywonderful.wordpress.com/tag/rbc-hockey-helps-the-homeless/>