HFTH EXPANDS TO OTTAWA

The National Capital Region will host its inaugural Hockey for the Homeless event on April 23rd 2010 at the Bell Sensplex in Kanata (www.bellsensplex.ca). The organizing committee is looking forward to working with Brad Marsh and the rest the NHL Alumni, and with the local hockey, business and outreach communities to ensure the success of the organization's first tournament in Ottawa – its fifth market across Canada. HFTH is committed to expanding to every Canadian city where there is interest in bringing together the business and hockey communities for the benefit of those in need.

HFTH SPONSORED BY...

Hockey for the Homeless and many of the outreach and transition agencies it supports are funded solely through donations from generous and charitable individuals and corporations. This year, Hockey for the Homeless benefited from unprecedented levels of sponsorship across Canada. As a result, more critical homeless outreach and transition projects will become reality and fewer Canadians will be forced to live on our streets. Thanks to all HFTH sponsors who made generous commitments in the past year. Special Thanks to our National Development Sponsor - Great West Life.

Thank you!

On September 20th 2009, Hockey for the Homeless launched its completely redesigned Website. In addition to the updated look and feel, the new site includes a revamped registration form and brand new online credit card payment system, which tournament participants have long been requesting. The system was used extensively for the payment of registration fees, donations and sponsorships leading up to our November events.

The site also provides access to photos and videos relating to Hockey for the Homeless as well as updated information on our events, our outreach initiatives and partners, and our generous sponsors and volunteers. Please take the time to visit and let us know what you think:

For the second time in less than one year, Hockey for the Homeless was featured on TSN's Molson – That's Hockey. The latest segment aired on Friday November 13th and featured Official HFTH Spokesperson Theoren Fleury. Many thanks for the incredible support provided by the entire TSN crew, and Gino Reda in particular; Randy and the dedicated people at the Gateway shelter in Toronto; as well as to Theo for his generous gift of time and his courage. As of this printing, the segment was still available via the TSN Website's video library.

Please take the time to visit Theo's Website at www.theofleury14.com.
